

January 2019 KCUC Meeting

Leah Brown of Crescendo Strategies will discuss “They Did What?! Behaviors of Different Personalities & Yourself”, a presentation of how to work well with your team when everyone is wired differently.

Location: Crowne Plaza – Coronet B Room

Date: Wednesday, January 16, 2019

Time: Sign in and Networking starting 7:15 AM

Breakfast begins at 8:00 AM

8:30 AM - KCUC organizational items, followed by Guest Speaker

9:30 AM – Adjourn

Reservations For This Meeting

Please make a reservation on the KCUC website www.kcuc.org if planning to attend this event.

We request reservations be made no later than Monday January 14, 2019 to ensure an accurate count for breakfast.

About Our Guest Speaker

Leah Brown is a Talent Retention Strategist for Crescendo Strategies, a Louisville-based firm committed to reducing unnecessary employee turnover for clients across multiple industries. Leah has 25 years of experience facilitating leadership programs through organizations such as the U.S. Chamber of Commerce’s Institute of Organizational Management, Dale Carnegie, the Department of Defense Education Activity, and the International Center for Corporate Learning at Sullivan University.

Leah earned a Bachelor Degree in Speech Communication and Rhetoric, Journalism from Arkansas Tech University.

She was included in Louisville Business First Magazine’s “20 People to Know in Workforce Development,” and she is the contributing author of the 2018 book, “Staying Power: Why Your Employees Leave & How to Keep Them Longer.”